Fall 2011 Course Descriptions for CLES ASA

Instructor: Nikki Slack Kelly is an alumna of Ballet with Cindee Velle with a BA in Dance Performance and Education from Towson University. Currently Nikki performs with Merge Dance Company and choreographs for the public school system. Her teaching credentials include Ballet with Cindee Velle, The YMCA, Project C, Studio Dans, The Columbia Academy, Howard County Head Start and MD public school system. Please welcome her back for her fourth consecutive year at CLES.

Dates: October 3, 10, 17, 24; November 7, 14, 28; December 5, 12, 19

Creative Movement: Pre K – K; Mon 5:30 to 6:15 pm; $99 for 10 weeks

Young children are introduced to dance classroom etiquette, basic floor and free-standing exercises and stretches, geometric shapes as they relate to dance, the mastery of gross loco motor skills and improvisation. Bright visuals, props and upbeat classical and contemporary music accompany this fun, instructional dance class.

Ballet/Jazz: Grades: 1 – 4; Mon 4:00 – 5:30 pm; $129 for 10 weeks

Classical Ballet training provides a solid foundation for all forms of dance. Students will be taught proper dance technique, body placement and basic ballet vocabulary. Our syllabus is largely influenced by the Vaganova or Russian method. In the Jazz portion of the class, students experience a broad range of contemporary American dance styles such as Broadway, Lyrical, Funk and Hip Hop.

Visitors' Day: Our last class, Monday December 19, will be an open house for family and friends to come observe an informal presentation of class work.

Attire: Girls are to wear leather or canvas pink ballet slippers, pink footed tights and a black leotard. All boys are to wear a white t-shirt, black leather or canvas ballet shoes and black dance pants, or sweat pants. Boys and girls in grades 1 – 4 will also need black slip on jazz shoes. Items can be purchased at Premier Dancegear in Columbia, 410/418-8804. (www.premierdancegear.com). For on line purchases from Discount Dance Supply go to www.discountdance.com.
